The Agony Endured by Nervous Women.

"My nerves are all unstrong" is the expressive way in which a woman is apt to describe a condition of extreme nervousness. The figurative express an "unstrung" may be unscientific but it pathetically suggests the grand harp of the nervous system, strung and keyed for harmonies by its Maker, now become so unstrug that it gives out nothing but jarring discords. Nervous people rarely receive the sympathy which is their due. The dropping of a book which causes the nervous woman to start, or the slam-ming of a door which causes her to scream, are sounds which do not jar the
